

Medical University Hospital Authority Affiliating Nursing Student Procedure Guidelines

Nursing Students and Clinical Instructors from affiliated colleges will complete the Computerized Annual Training and Tracking System (CATTs) annually to document hospital competencies.

Nursing students may perform the following procedures in the inpatient and ambulatory setting under RN supervision. (See Nursing Student Checklist)

The following procedure exceptions apply:

Procedures where Instructor Must be Present:*

1. CVL Dressing Changes
2. CVL Line Access
  - a) Flush
  - b) Draw Blood
  - c) Infusions (per Policy C-61)
3. Pediatric Enteral Feeds

The following procedures may not be performed by nursing students or affiliating clinical faculty (observance only):

1. Access/De-Access Port
2. Occlusion Management of CVL
3. Removal of CVL
4. High Dose Heparin Flush
5. Management of External Pacers
6. External Ventricular Device
7. Ventilator Machine Management
8. Femoral Sheaths
9. Moderate Sedation
10. Epidural/PCA
  - a. D/C
  - b. Dose Changes
  - c. Pump Management